

TRANSPARENCY MATTERS

Complete supply chain transparency is what sets Natural Plant Products apart. Our oilseed crops are grown on our farms, extracted and refined with trusted manufacturing partners, shipped globally to our exclusive distributors and delivered directly to their customers.

GROW DAIKON RADISH

NPP's grower members have been growing Daikon Radish in their crop rotations for decades.

EXTRACT, REFINE, BLEND

NPP contracts the extraction, refining, and addition of Rosamox™ (an antioxidant) with trusted partners through decades-long relationships.

SHIP TO DISTRIBUTORS

Once the Daikon Seed Extract is packaged, it is shipped around the world to our exclusive distribution partners.

SHIP TO MANUFACTURERS

When manufacturers place an order, our distributors ship the oil in NPP factory-sealed and labeled packaging.
